

Ex Officio Insect Shield Apparel ①

Flies, ticks, mosquitoes, noseems, chiggers, midges and ants just hate Ex Officio's Insect Shield garments. Shirts, pants, long-sleeve hoodies, socks and vests are available, priced from $13 to $90. Treated with Buzz Off Insect Shield, they keep repelling those little varmints through 70 washings. Contact Ex Officio; Tel.: (800) 644-7303; Web: www.exofficio.com

Real Earth Bug Away Spray ②

If you want to make bugs go away without melting your fly lines or dissolving the permeable membrane in your waders, get some Real Earth Bug Away spray ($13), made from natural oils of grape seed, lavender, cedarleaf, pennyroyal, lemongrass, eucalyptus, rosemary and citronella. Contact Real Earth Products; Tel.: (888) 761-7333; Web: www.realearthproducts.com

Tilley Insect Shield Hat ③

Here's the very best of both worlds: A top-quality Tilley hat treated with Buzz Off's odorless and invisible Insect Shield that also offers UPF 50+ UV protection. Made from 100% cotton duck fabric with an olive-green underbrim, the Tilley Insect Shield Hat ($78) is guaranteed for life. Contact Tilley Endurables; Tel.: (800) 363-8737; Web: www.tilley.com

④

②

③

①

Wind River Quick Seine ④

If you'd rather catch bugs than repel them, Wind River's Quick Seine ($19.95 to $22.95) attaches to the yoke of your landing net with Velcro. The white elasticized seine folds out of its breathable pouch to stretch over the net frame. Two sizes are offered to fit nets with 10- to 15-inch openings. Contact Wind River; Tel.: (303) 652-0648; Web: www.windriversgear.com

